Introduction

The Definition of the Evaluation Domain (DED) ensures consistency between a course and the related evaluation instruments. The DED is used to select, organize and describe the essential and representative elements of the course. The DED is based on the program of study and the course, but should by no means replace them in the planning of instructional activities.

The DED is the reference document that ensures the validity of the examinations across the province.¹ This document serves as a framework for developing multiple equivalent versions of an evaluation instrument.

The DED for each ministerial examination is developed by the Ministère de l'Éducation, du Loisir et du Sport (MELS). The DED for other types of examinations is developed by MELS or, at the request of school boards, by the Société GRICS (BIM). For ethical reasons, only those responsible for developing Definitions of the Evaluation Domain can modify their content.

Examinations developed by MELS are consistent with the content of their respective DED. It is recommended that all other examinations be in agreement with the DED.

Specifications for the Evaluation Instruments

Examination: Number of Parts, Sections, Procedure and Duration

The examination consists of one part divided into four sections, with a total duration of 180 minutes. The sections may be administered in the same exam session or during different exam sessions, in the order most relevant to the real-life situation.

Section – Interacting orally: 30 minutes (25 minutes for the preparation and 3 to 5 minutes for the interaction)

Section – Listening to informative and expressive texts: 30 minutes

Section – Reading informative and expressive texts: 60 minutes

Section – Writing informative and expressive texts: 60 minutes

Examination Content

The examination focuses on a real-life situation related to a healthy lifestyle (e.g. ensuring proper nutrition, preventing disease, contacting a public health agency) and to consumer transactions (e.g. obtaining a loan, returning a defective product, comparing services). In addition to interacting orally, the adult learner will be required to read, write and listen to informative and expressive texts. When possible, the task or tasks related to the real-life situation may measure more than one evaluation criterion.

Section – Interacting orally

Prior to the interaction, the adult learner prepares notes to use as a reference. The adult learner interacts with another speaker. He/she may: ask for, obtain or give information, instructions and advice, express opinions, preferences and interests and/or state his/her lifestyle needs and concerns.

Section – Listening to informative and expressive texts

The adult learner listens to an informative text or an expressive text. The informative text can be related to a healthy lifestyle (e.g. television program, presentation, documentary) or to consumer transactions (e.g. infomercials, sales pitch). The adult learner could also listen to an expressive text such as a testimonial related to a healthy lifestyle. To show his/her understanding of the main idea and specific details in an informative text or the opinions, thoughts and feelings in an expressive text, the adult learner may complete a questionnaire and/or other documents relevant to the task.

Section – Reading informative and expressive texts

The adult learner reads an informative text and/or an expressive text. The informative text can be related to a healthy lifestyle (e.g. self-help article, pamphlet) or consumer transactions (e.g. consumer report, payment schedules, product website). The expressive text may be a testimonial, blog or letter related to a healthy lifestyle or to consumer transactions. To show his/her understanding of the main idea and specific details in an informative text, or the opinions, thoughts and feelings in an expressive text, the adult learner may complete a questionnaire and/or other documents relevant to the task.

Section – Writing informative and expressive texts

The adult learner produces an informative text or expressive text, approximately 200 words in length. The informative text can be related to a healthy lifestyle (e.g. form, record, formal letter) or consumer transactions (e.g. warranty registration, letter of complaint). The expressive text can be an email, testimonial, blog or personal account. This section of the examination evaluates the learner's ability to use correct grammar, spelling and punctuation as he/she organizes relevant information appropriate to the audience, purpose and situation.
